

Moot Hall

October 5 th & 6 th 1962

8.0 P.M.

The Moot House Players

present
a programme of
Early English Music and Drama

English Music of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries

Jean Buik (Soprano)

Margaret Hill (Mezzo-soprano)

David Hill (Spinnet)

Two Carzonets: Sweet nimph come to thy lover
I goe before my darling

Thomas Morley

Pavana and Galliaro 'The Earl of Salisbury'

William Byrd

Awake, sweet love

John Dowland

Have you seen but a white lily grow ?

Anon.

Come again, sweet love doth now invite

John Dowland

The Lord of Salisbury his Pavin

Orlando Gibbons

A Hymne to God the Father

Pelham Humphrey

The Sun shall be no more thy Light

Maurice Greene

SHORT INTERVAL

The Fifteenth Century Morality play, in Johan Skot's Text
EVERYMAN

At the close of the performance coffee and refreshments will be served in the foyer and in the Bar